

You are invited to an intimate afternoon with ...

Fred Smith

3pm, Sunday 23rd Nov, 2014

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Fred Smith is without question one of Australia's best songwriters and every time he has come to Humph Hall it has, not surprisingly, been to a capacity audience. With over 9,000 viewings his song 'Sapper's Lullaby' is by far the most popular Humph Hall video clip I've uploaded. On this occasion Fred will be once again sharing the stage with longtime sidekick Liz Frencham, a stunning performer in her own right. The two of them together is magic!

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial and Wayne. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humph.org - humphhall.org
