

You are invited to attend a concert presented by . . .

The Hollands! are a full-time internationally touring family based in the US with a knack for engaging audiences and rousing a sing-a long. They are 21st century nomadic travelers who frolic in the organic folk revival scene. By the end of their performance, you will feel like you are part of the band. This is the experience and magic that happens when The Hollands! come to town!

"What a wonderful concert. Your songs are fun and upbeat and your talent is amazing."

"Their songs are wonderful, melodic, & about things that matter."

"You won't wanna miss this unique & talented family. So well done. personal, interactive, professional, and ...well, just plain good stuff!"

7pm, Friday 22nd Jan 2016

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial and Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to attend a concert presented by . . .

The Hollands! are a full-time internationally touring family based in the US with a knack for engaging audiences and rousing a sing-a long. They are 21st century nomadic travelers who frolic in the organic folk revival scene. By the end of their performance, you will feel like you are part of the band. This is the experience and magic that happens when The Hollands! come to town!

"What a wonderful concert. Your songs are fun and upbeat and your talent is amazing."

"Their songs are wonderful, melodic, & about things that matter."

"You won't wanna miss this unique & talented family. So well done. personal, interactive, professional, and ...well, just plain good stuff!"

7pm, Friday 22nd Jan 2016

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial and Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to attend a concert presented by . . .

The Hollands! are a full-time internationally touring family based in the US with a knack for engaging audiences and rousing a sing-a long. They are 21st century nomadic travelers who frolic in the organic folk revival scene. By the end of their performance, you will feel like you are part of the band. This is the experience and magic that happens when The Hollands! come to town!

"What a wonderful concert. Your songs are fun and upbeat and your talent is amazing."

"Their songs are wonderful, melodic, & about things that matter."

"You won't wanna miss this unique & talented family. So well done. personal, interactive, professional, and ...well, just plain good stuff!"

7pm, Friday 22nd Jan 2016

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial and Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org