

An evening of Australian & US 'mining music' presented by . . .

George Mann sings songs from the last century of labour and social activism in the USA. His own songs are powerful and funny takes on the state of the nation.

He has shared stages with Pete Seeger, Utah Phillips & Faith Petric, among others, and his compilations have featured such folk legends as Tom Paxton, Utah Phillips, Billy Bragg & Holly Near.

On this occasion he will be joined by John Broomhall and members of Loosely Woven to present an interesting array of miner's songs from around the world.
