

You are invited to experience an intimate evening with

Acclaimed for her songwriting and storytelling, songstress Rachel Collis has arranged and recorded many of her songs with string quartet, but she has yet to experience the joy of performing these arrangements live on stage.

On July 22nd, in the beautiful acoustics of Humph Hall, this dream will finally come to fruition.

The quartet will begin the evening on their own before being joined by Rachel & her trio (Mike Quigley on drums & Aria-award winning Michael Galeazzi on double bass). Together they will perform Rachel's ethereal, breath-taking, and even occasionally funny songs.

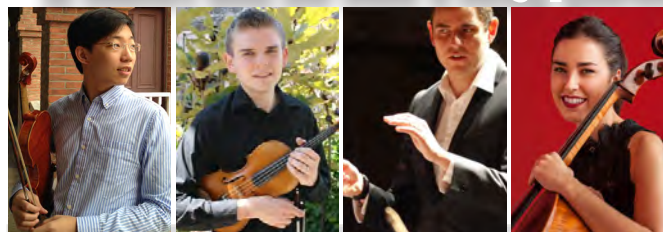

7pm, Saturday 22nd July, 2017
