

You are invited to experience the humour & musical brilliance of . . .

Stephen Taberner

Kirsty Bromley (UK)

Stephen Taberner, notorious as the arch-conspirator behind the Spooky Men's Chorale, takes to the stage with his beloved double bass "Beatrice" to titillate your ears with a sly array of quirky, funky and melancholic songs exploring, amongst other things, teenage angst, the secret life of peaches, and how the hell Jim manages to mow all those lawns.

Kirsty Bromley is a young contemporary folk singer based in Sheffield who draws upon a wide range of traditional music with her disarmingly transparent voice.

4pm Sun 22nd February 2015

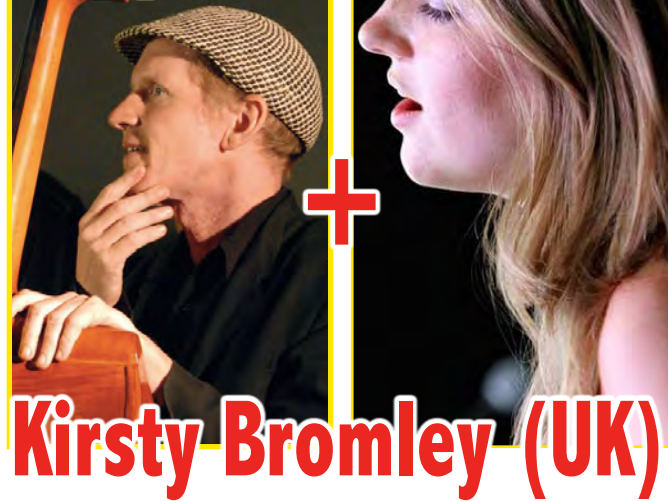

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne. Bookings highly recommended! 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to experience the humour & musical brilliance of . . .

Stephen Taberner

Kirsty Bromley (UK)

Stephen Taberner, notorious as the arch-conspirator behind the Spooky Men's Chorale, takes to the stage with his beloved double bass "Beatrice" to titillate your ears with a sly array of quirky, funky and melancholic songs exploring, amongst other things, teenage angst, the secret life of peaches, and how the hell Jim manages to mow all those lawns.

Kirsty Bromley is a young contemporary folk singer based in Sheffield who draws upon a wide range of traditional music with her disarmingly transparent voice.

4pm Sun 22nd February 2015

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne. Bookings highly recommended! 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to experience the humour & musical brilliance of . . .

Stephen Taberner

Kirsty Bromley (UK)

Stephen Taberner, notorious as the arch-conspirator behind the Spooky Men's Chorale, takes to the stage with his beloved double bass "Beatrice" to titillate your ears with a sly array of quirky, funky and melancholic songs exploring, amongst other things, teenage angst, the secret life of peaches, and how the hell Jim manages to mow all those lawns.

Kirsty Bromley is a young contemporary folk singer based in Sheffield who draws upon a wide range of traditional music with her disarmingly transparent voice.

4pm Sun 22nd February 2015

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne. Bookings highly recommended! 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org