

Come & experience a tribute to the renowned UK folk family ...

THE WATERSONS

presented by ...

The Spooners & The Fagans

In London 1963 two sisters, a brother & a good family mate electrified the English folk scene when they appeared at The Troubadour Folk Club in Earls Court. Four young people singing songs a capella from their home county of Yorkshire. The audience was gobsmacked and saw them go on to be a driving force in the Second Folk Revival between the 1960s & 80s.

In this presentation Danny & Gael Spooner, together with Margaret & Bob Fagan will take you back to those wonderful days of full throated choruses, kaleidoscopic harmonies & lots of audience participation.

3pm, Sunday 4th Dec 2016

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org

Come & experience a tribute to the renowned UK folk family ...

THE WATERSONS

presented by ...

The Spooners & The Fagans

In London 1963 two sisters, a brother & a good family mate electrified the English folk scene when they appeared at The Troubadour Folk Club in Earls Court. Four young people singing songs a capella from their home county of Yorkshire. The audience was gobsmacked and saw them go on to be a driving force in the Second Folk Revival between the 1960s & 80s.

In this presentation Danny & Gael Spooner, together with Margaret & Bob Fagan will take you back to those wonderful days of full throated choruses, kaleidoscopic harmonies & lots of audience participation.

3pm, Sunday 4th Dec 2016

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org

Come & experience a tribute to the renowned UK folk family ...

THE WATERSONS

presented by ...

The Spooners & The Fagans

In London 1963 two sisters, a brother & a good family mate electrified the English folk scene when they appeared at The Troubadour Folk Club in Earls Court. Four young people singing songs a capella from their home county of Yorkshire. The audience was gobsmacked and saw them go on to be a driving force in the Second Folk Revival between the 1960s & 80s.

In this presentation Danny & Gael Spooner, together with Margaret & Bob Fagan will take you back to those wonderful days of full throated choruses, kaleidoscopic harmonies & lots of audience participation.

3pm, Sunday 4th Dec 2016

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org