

An evening of Australian & US 'mining music' presented by . . .

George Mann (US) & John Broomhall

George Mann sings songs of labour & social activism. His own songs are powerful & funny takes on the state of the nation. He has shared stages with the likes of Pete Seeger, Utah Phillips & Faith Petric & on this occasion he'll be joined by John Broomhall + members of Loosely Woven.

7pm, Saturday 31st January 2015

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial and Wayne. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org