

An afternoon of beautiful music presented by . . .

Plektra is an acoustic plucked string ensemble performing an evocative fusion of contemporary Australian art music & "world music" works inspired by countries & regions of Eastern Europe as well as works from the classical tradition. Plektra's sound is created by an instrumentation consisting of mandolins, mandola, classical guitar, classical bass guitar, the Russian domra, Middle Eastern oud & on occasions, violin & didgeridoo.

4pm, Saturday 30th September 2017

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial and Wayne. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org