

You are invited to an afternoon with singer/harpist ...

One of the most original voices in the Australian arts community, Mary Doumany is a cross-arts practitioner renown as a composer, harpist and singer.

She made her solo debut for ABC Radio with Debussy's Danses Sacree et Profane at age twenty, and has since performed widely as a recitalist, festival guest, and chamber ensemble musician. Solo performance highlights include the City of London Festival and Artcore (Paris); the 2006 International Harp Festival held in Adelaide, and as the featured soloist at the 2008 Australian International Harp Festival in Canberra.

Today, Mary's solo performances are typically jazz-based, featuring both standards and original works.

4pm, Sunday 16th Oct 2016

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to an afternoon with singer/harpist ...

One of the most original voices in the Australian arts community, Mary Doumany is a cross-arts practitioner renown as a composer, harpist and singer.

She made her solo debut for ABC Radio with Debussy's Danses Sacree et Profane at age twenty, and has since performed widely as a recitalist, festival guest, and chamber ensemble musician. Solo performance highlights include the City of London Festival and Artcore (Paris); the 2006 International Harp Festival held in Adelaide, and as the featured soloist at the 2008 Australian International Harp Festival in Canberra.

Today, Mary's solo performances are typically jazz-based, featuring both standards and original works.

4pm, Sunday 16th Oct 2016

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to an afternoon with singer/harpist ...

One of the most original voices in the Australian arts community, Mary Doumany is a cross-arts practitioner renown as a composer, harpist and singer.

She made her solo debut for ABC Radio with Debussy's Danses Sacree et Profane at age twenty, and has since performed widely as a recitalist, festival guest, and chamber ensemble musician. Solo performance highlights include the City of London Festival and Artcore (Paris); the 2006 International Harp Festival held in Adelaide, and as the featured soloist at the 2008 Australian International Harp Festival in Canberra.

Today, Mary's solo performances are typically jazz-based, featuring both standards and original works.

4pm, Sunday 16th Oct 2016

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne.
Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org