

You are invited to delightful evening of fine harmonies performed by . . .

“They were cheeky, adventurous, funny & commanding. They are a joy and a must see for anyone who thinks, listens, laughs & sings.”

Identical twin sisters Alanna & Alicia are excited to return to Humph Hall with their beautiful new album, 'Songs I'm Singing with Me' which was included in the National Folk Festival's top albums of 2017. Alanna & Alicia have charmed audiences from Port Fairy to Woodford with their original folky jazz songs, their quality quirky lyrics, sweet harmonies and onstage warmth, wit and fun.

They will be accompanied by their fine band: Jen Hawley (guitar), Silas Palmer (piano, violin) & Sarah Busittul (violin).
