

You are invited to an amazing evening of top class music . . .

Strange Bedfellows

Jack Wiard Trio + Rachel Collis Trio

In a marriage of strange bedfellows come together two very different acts for an afternoon of exceptional musicality, entertainment and variety. Highly acclaimed Sydney songstress Rachel Collis along with her trio will join forces with virtuoso jazz clarinetist Jack Wiard and his trio in a celebration of collaboration and diversity.

Rachel Collis is no stranger to variety. Since stepping into the musical spotlight in 2012, she has gathered quite the reputation for her unforgettable live performances, drawing comparisons as diverse as songwriting legend Joni Mitchell and funny man Tim Minchin.

Jack Wiard moved to Sydney from California in 1971. After five years of teaching, he joined the Ray Price Quintet and from 1979 until 2004 Jack was a member of the Graeme Bell Allstars Jazz Band. He has also played with the Robbers Dogs Jazz Band, Mike Hallams Hot Six, Geoff Powers Classic Jazz Band, and the Sydney-Zenith Jazz Band, doing nine European tours with them.

7pm, Sat. 11th August, 2018

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to an amazing evening of top class music . . .

Strange Bedfellows

Jack Wiard Trio + Rachel Collis Trio

In a marriage of strange bedfellows come together two very different acts for an afternoon of exceptional musicality, entertainment and variety. Highly acclaimed Sydney songstress Rachel Collis along with her trio will join forces with virtuoso jazz clarinetist Jack Wiard and his trio in a celebration of collaboration and diversity.

Rachel Collis is no stranger to variety. Since stepping into the musical spotlight in 2012, she has gathered quite the reputation for her unforgettable live performances, drawing comparisons as diverse as songwriting legend Joni Mitchell and funny man Tim Minchin.

Jack Wiard moved to Sydney from California in 1971. After five years of teaching, he joined the Ray Price Quintet and from 1979 until 2004 Jack was a member of the Graeme Bell Allstars Jazz Band. He has also played with the Robbers Dogs Jazz Band, Mike Hallams Hot Six, Geoff Powers Classic Jazz Band, and the Sydney-Zenith Jazz Band, doing nine European tours with them.

7pm, Sat. 11th August, 2018

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org

You are invited to an amazing evening of top class music . . .

Strange Bedfellows

Jack Wiard Trio + Rachel Collis Trio

In a marriage of strange bedfellows come together two very different acts for an afternoon of exceptional musicality, entertainment and variety. Highly acclaimed Sydney songstress Rachel Collis along with her trio will join forces with virtuoso jazz clarinetist Jack Wiard and his trio in a celebration of collaboration and diversity.

Rachel Collis is no stranger to variety. Since stepping into the musical spotlight in 2012, she has gathered quite the reputation for her unforgettable live performances, drawing comparisons as diverse as songwriting legend Joni Mitchell and funny man Tim Minchin.

Jack Wiard moved to Sydney from California in 1971. After five years of teaching, he joined the Ray Price Quintet and from 1979 until 2004 Jack was a member of the Graeme Bell Allstars Jazz Band. He has also played with the Robbers Dogs Jazz Band, Mike Hallams Hot Six, Geoff Powers Classic Jazz Band, and the Sydney-Zenith Jazz Band, doing nine European tours with them.

7pm, Sat. 11th August, 2018

Humph Hall

85 Allambie Road, Allambie Heights

Formerly the Allambie Heights Uniting Church, Humph Hall is now the private home of Gial & Wayne. Bookings: 9939 8802 wayne@humphhall.org - humphhall.org