

You are invited to an evening of fine harmonies performed by . . .

Identical twin sisters Alanna & Alicia are excited to return to Humph Hall with their new album, 'Songs I'm Singing with Me' which was one of the National Folk Festival's top albums of 2017.

Alanna and Alicia have charmed audiences from Port Fairy to Woodford with their original folky jazz songs, their quality quirky lyrics, sweet harmonies and onstage warmth, wit and fun. They are renowned for their fine songwriting with lyrics that are equal parts heart and humour.

They will be accompanied by their fine band, Jen Hawley (guitar), Silas Palmer (piano, violin) and Sarah Busittul (violin).
